GROUND RULES

1. Keep other participants' words and actions completely confidential. In order to preserve spontaneity, do not disclose the exact nature of the exercises of the training to people who have not done Genesis. Please note: Inspirean Group cannot guarantee confidentiality.
2. Attend all sessions of Genesis, including Friday, Saturday, Sunday, the post training interview and the guest evening
3. Be on time. The training starts at 10:00am on Saturday and 10:00am on Sunday. The online Zoom meeting room will be open 20 minutes before the training begins, and a timer will be started. Log into the online platform for the training before the timer reaches 00:00. Turn your video on before the music ends.
4. Keep your video turned on at all times during training sessions.
5. Keep your microphone on mute at all times unless permitted by the trainer to ask a question or share during a dyad, small group meeting or designated sharing period.
6. Do not smoke, eat, or chew gum while the course is in session.
7. Do not use any type of recording device that captures pictures or screenshots or any software or devices that create any audiovisual file of the training sessions or content.
8. Use no alcohol, marijuana, or other mood-altering drugs until the completion of the training on Sunday.
9. Do not share the access information for the course with any person who is not a registered participant in the course.
10. Keep your cell phone or other similar devices on mute at all times during course sessions.
11. Throughout each session, to maintain confidentiality, ensure that no other persons are in near proximity to see or hear the course, other people's sharing or interrupt your participation.
12. Be responsible for your own well-being. This means getting sufficient sleep and nutrition during the course and taking any prescribed medication as scheduled.
